UK'S LEADING KEY ACCOUNT MANAGEMENT

STRATEGIES

- Standing out from competitors rather than just standing up to them
- Becoming an exceptional business partner, rather than a supplier
- Being seen as a value-creator not a cost-creator

SYSTEMS

- Understanding “where you are starting from” through effective KAM audits
- Developing simple and effective “KAMplans” for each key account
- Building one-page strategic plans for each key account

SKILLS

- Improving relationships by becoming an expert in the customer's world
- Developing KAM as a “team sport” across the business
- Improving internal customer service and reducing “friendly fire”

TESTIMONIALS

“KAMguru’s ideas on ‘account management as a team sport’ helped us through the minefield of 48 decision makers and influencers – in one account! The model was then used for another 19 accounts where cross-selling opportunities were identified and exploited with great success”

Nick Hurrell
Business Development Director, Hogg Robinson
